ST. LOUIS, MO – Lily Seymour with Solon Gershman, Inc., an ONCOR International affiliate, was awarded the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation by the CCIM Institute, one of the leading commercial real estate associations in the world. The designation was awarded in October following examinations held in Hawaii.

Ms. Seymour was among the 120 commercial real estate professionals from across the nation who earned the designation by passing the Institute's Comprehensive Examination, the final component in the designation process. Only 15,000 commercial real estate professionals from the United States, Canada, Mexico, Asia and Europe have earned the CCIM designation since the program was founded in 1969.

Ms. Seymour's economic and entrepreneurial background combined with her real estate experience creates a perfect blend of expertise. This expertise provides her clients with excellent brokerage representation and exceptional value.

Her community involvement includes: Clayton Chamber of Commerce, Brentwood Chamber of Commerce, Washington University Women's Society, the Spirit of St. Louis Women's Fund, Beaux Art member of the St. Louis Art Museum, Doctor's Without Borders and Voices for Children.

The CCIM designation is awarded to commercial real estate professionals upon successful completion of a graduate-level education curriculum and presentation of a portfolio of qualifying industry experience. The curriculum addresses: financial analysis, market analysis, user decision analysis and investment analysis – the cornerstones of commercial investment real estate.
