GERSHMAN COMMERCIAL PROMOTIONS AND NEW HIRE

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI – Gershman Commercial is pleased to announce recent changes to the brokerage and property management teams. Courtney Hix has been promoted to Senior Property Manager, Lily Seymour has been promoted to Vice President, Roger Zigler has been promoted to Associate Vice President, Melissa Chapnick has joined as an Associate and Courtney Meredith has joined as a Property Administrator.

Courtney Hix joined Gershman in 2014 bringing 8 years of experience in commercial property management. Courtney currently oversees a mixed-use portfolio of 14 properties consisting of retail and office buildings. Prior to joining Gershman, Courtney managed DDR's Central Midwest Region portfolio at Sansone Group.

Lily Seymour has been in commercial real estate since 2004 and is licensed in both Missouri and Illinois. She is a member of the St. Louis Association of Realtors, the National Association of Realtors, the International Council of Shopping Centers, and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member.

Roger Zigler joined Gershman in 2011 and focuses primarily on commercial properties in partnership with Steve Symsack. Melissa Chapnick is the newest addition to the Symsack/Zigler team, and will be primarily focusing on downtown properties.

Courtney Meredith has been added to the property management team as a Property Administrator. Courtney relocated here from Seattle, where she previously worked as the General Aviation Duty Manager at King County International Airport.
