GREGORY J. NOONEY, JR. TO RETIRE FROM GERSHMAN COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE IN SEPTEMBER

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI – Gershman Commercial is both delighted and disheartened to announce that Gregory J. Nooney, Jr. will be retiring at the end of September. Greg has been a leader in the commercial real estate industry on both a local and national level for over 60 years. He joined Gershman Commercial Real Estate in 2011 when Gershman acquired Coldwell Banker Commercial, where Greg served as the Managing Principal. Greg served as Chairman of Nooney | Krombach Co. prior to Coldwell Banker, and before that he was President of Nooney Company which his father started in 1945. Many of the leaders of commercial real estate in St. Louis learned the business and were mentored with his vast and broad knowledge of the industry.

Greg was invited into the prestigious designation of The Counselors of Real Estate. In 2012, he was honored by the St. Louis Chapter of SIOR, and recognized for his Legacy Circle involvement and leadership in the national SIOR community for 50 years. During his career, he has been involved in the development of several well-known St. Louis buildings including Pierre Laclede I & II, Interco Corporate Tower, 500 Broadway and Barrett Woods to name a few. He has also been involved in property management and leasing for numerous institutional investors in the St. Louis area.

In 1997, Nooney was appointed Chairman of the Missouri Real Estate Commission by Governor Carnahan. Nooney has received the Daniel F. Sheehan Lifetime Achievement Award from the St. Louis Association of Realtors, the Missouri Growth Association Community Betterment Award, and the Missouri Growth Association Eads Award. Greg finishes his illustrious career as an Executive Vice President of Gershman Commercial.

Gershman Commercial Real Estate (formerly Solon Gershman Inc.) is the largest locally owned, full-service real estate firm in St. Louis offering commercial brokerage services, asset and facilities management, investment acquisition / disposition, corporate services, consulting and development services.
